

First Ladies Forum FAQs for interested Venues:

Will these programs be live and in person?

Since the artists live in various areas of the country, virtual programs are ideal. However, they will always be live, and not pre-recorded.

Do you all interact together in one play?

Each First Lady has her own, individual, solo program.

What, exactly, are these programs?

Each artist has researched and written her own dramatic program (lasting from 45-60 minutes), which will be delivered in the character of an American First Lady. After that program, there will be an additional Q&A session for your audience, which will last approx. 15-25 minutes.

How much do these programs cost?

Each artist's fee is $350, for a total of $1,400 for four separate, dynamic, performances. A deposit is required.

Can I record this program for my members/customers?

No. Recording isn't allowed.

When should I book these programs?

- Dates and times for each program must be determined and agreed upon at the time of booking.
- First Ladies Forum recommends booking these programs in Chronological Order: Dolley Madison, Louisa Catherine Adams, Mary Lincoln, and Jacqueline Kennedy. However, that order is not required.
- These programs may be booked close together (i.e. once a week for Women's History Month), or further apart (i.e. once a quarter for a year).

I've already booked one of these programs in the recent past; can I substitute another one?

Please contact the individual artist with whom you have already worked. In certain circumstances, there may be an option for a substitution. However, it is not guaranteed.

I'm not interested in these particular women from history; do you portray others?

Each of our artists has other women from history that she portrays. Historical figures include (but are not limited to): Jane Austen, Rachael Carson, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Hedy Lamarr, Amelia Earhart, Queen Elizabeth II, Laura Ingalls Wilder, Lucy Stone, Charlotte Bronte, and Deborah Samson.
